Hilary Hunt

hilary@makingcentspa.org

Hilary Hunt is a nationally recognized education consultant with fifteen years experience in the field of financial education. Her current consulting work ranges from curriculum development to research and program evaluation. Recent clients include Pennsylvania State University, The Heinz Endowments, Investor Protection Trust, and American Bankers Association.

Hilary served as director of the Pennsylvania Office of Financial Education under Governor Edward G. Rendell from its inception in 2004 until 2009. As director, Hilary oversaw the office's initiatives to increase the availability and quality of financial education in Pennsylvania's schools, communities, and workplaces. Hilary currently serves as president of the Pennsylvania Jump$tart Coalition and is a past member of the board of Junior Achievement of Central Pennsylvania.

Hilary began her career in education as a secondary mathematics teacher in Virginia. She moved to Pennsylvania to serve as the vice president of Program Development with Economics Pennsylvania and from there went on to work for the National Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy and the Foundation for Investor Education. Hilary holds a degree in mathematics from the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, VA and is pursuing her masters in Education Entrepreneurship at the University of Pennsylvania. She resides in rural Adams County, Pennsylvania with her husband Wade, a middle school principal, and their two young children.

David Buono

dbuono@pa.gov

David Buono graduated from Penn State and began his career in the insurance industry in 1999. In 2007, he was named regional manager for Progressive Insurance, where he worked with consumers, the insurance industry, and the Kentucky Department of Insurance. A Pennsylvania native, David returned to Pennsylvania to lead the Insurance Department's increased efforts to provide consumer outreach and communications. David's primary role is to make sure the department is reaching consumers and helping them navigate the complex world of insurance. He supports the department's initiatives to keep the state's insurance market competitive, while focusing on helping consumers learn and understand their rights and responsibilities, what options are available to them when it comes to insurance products, and provide a place for consumers to get answers to their questions.

The Making Cents: Financial Literacy and Economic Education for Pennsylvania Teachers webinars are sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Education in cooperation with Penn State University
