Speaker Biographies

Hilary Hunt

hilary@makingcentspa.org

Hilary Hunt is a nationally recognized education consultant with fifteen years experience in the field of financial education. Her current consulting work ranges from curriculum development to research and program evaluation. Recent clients include Pennsylvania State University, The Heinz Endowments, Investor Protection Trust, and American Bankers Association.

Hilary served as director of the Pennsylvania Office of Financial Education under Governor Edward G. Rendell from its inception in 2004 until 2009. As director, Hilary oversaw the office's initiatives to increase the availability and quality of financial education in Pennsylvania's schools, communities, and workplaces. Hilary currently serves as president of the Pennsylvania Jump$tart Coalition and is a past member of the board of Junior Achievement of Central Pennsylvania.

Hilary began her career in education as a secondary mathematics teacher in Virginia. She moved to Pennsylvania to serve as the vice president of Program Development with Economics Pennsylvania and from there went on to work for the National Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy and the Foundation for Investor Education. Hilary holds a degree in mathematics from the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, VA and is pursuing her masters in Education Entrepreneurship at the University of Pennsylvania. She resides in rural Adams County, Pennsylvania with her husband Wade, a middle school principal, and their two young children.
